

Spirit of Christmas Past:

Four Centuries of Christmas in New England

Friday, Dec. 5 at 10:30 AM

This well-illustrated lecture traces the development of the celebration of Christmas from the time it was outlawed in the 17th c. to the beginning of the 21st c. when all the trappings of a traditional Christmas were in place. Many of the customs we take for granted as part of the festivities and religious celebrations are actually a product of more recent history.

Ken Turino, from Historic New England, looks at how Christmas was transformed from rowdy celebrations to family-oriented events. Free and open to the public.

Hamilton-Wenham Library

978-468-5577 hwlibrary.org

Spirit of Christmas Past:

Four Centuries of Christmas in New England

Friday, Dec. 5 at 10:30 AM

This well-illustrated lecture traces the development of the celebration of Christmas from the time it was outlawed in the 17th c. to the beginning of the 21st c. when all the trappings of a traditional Christmas were in place. Many of the customs we take for granted as part of the festivities and religious celebrations are actually a product of more recent history.

Ken Turino, from Historic New England, looks at how Christmas was transformed from rowdy celebrations to family-oriented events. Free and open to the public.

Hamilton-Wenham Library

978-468-5577 hwlibrary.org

