

Medal of Valor

Officer Adam Barlow
Officer Terry Crenshaw

Recipients: Officer Adam Barlow
 Officer Terry Crenshaw

On January 5, 2014 at approximately 10 o'clock p.m., Patrol Officers in the area of the 4100 block of Rilma Avenue observed a male suspicious person wearing dark clothing walking with a bicycle towards North Water Tower Park.

Officers Barlow and Crenshaw were conducting bicycle patrol at North Water Tower Park when they observed the subject. They approached the subject and observed a revolver in his hand.

Officers Barlow and Crenshaw immediately instructed the subject to drop the weapon however the subject raised the weapon and fired upon the Officers. A firefight began and unfortunately, the subject succumbed to injuries despite lifesaving efforts by Officers on scene.

Officers Barlow and Crenshaw faced a life-threatening situation with a subject who was intent on causing himself and others great bodily harm. For their bravery with imminent personal risk, the Sarasota Police Department is proud to present Officer Adam Barlow and Officer Terry Crenshaw with the MEDAL OF VALOR.
