

St. Andrew United Methodist Church

- Evangelism and Interfaith Sharing Ministry -

Invites EVERYONE to attend a special
Presentation on Muslim and Methodist Heritages

Saturday, April 16, 2016 - 6:00PM @
St Andrew's Fellowship Hall, 250 N. Gary Ave., Carol Stream, IL

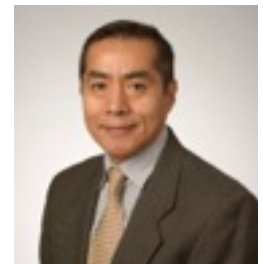

Guest presenter: Naazish Yarkhan, Writer and Professional Communicator, award Winning founder/Director of Refugee Assistance Programs in DuPage County, an organization dedicated to provide adjustment orientation, ESL and other services to help refugees transition into life in DuPage county.

Naazish is also founder of "Writers Studio" in Glen Ellyn, a practice dedicated to help young writers polish the craft of communication for school and career advancement. Naazish has an extensive portfolio of articles and panel participation in important media outlets like NPR, the Huffington Post, the Chicago Tribune and Chicago's PBS station WTTW. She holds a BS in English Literature from Bombay University in India, and a Masters in Communications from Northwestern University.

Host presenter: Gil Ramirez, Head of Evangelism Ministry at Saint Andrew UMC in Carol Stream. As a member of St Andrew for 13 years, Gil has participated in several service ministries along with Ruth, his partner and wife, contributing vision and energy to the seeding of Immigration Services that St Andrew offers to the community, along with our Reconciling Ministries membership. For the last three years, Gil has provided guidance to St Andrew's Faith Sharing and Interfaith efforts. He is a certified Lay Servant and Disciples Series Teacher. He holds a BS in Information Systems and an MBA from Mexico's National Polytechnic Institute.

Please come and enjoy an evening of discussion on Spiritual Development, Cultural Enlightenment and Social Mission. Refreshments will be available and a Q.A. will follow. Bring your family and friends!