Djibouti to Spend $14.9 Million on Cranes

The Authority of the Port of Djibouti has signed a contract agreement with a company to purchase 100 cranes within 12 months after delivery. The contract, signed two months after delivery, is part of the fourth development project

CBS Wins OAU's Largest IT Project

City Business Services (CBS), the first local IT company established in 1991, won the most highly competitive international bids for the United Nations Office Project Services (UNOPS), a UNDP representing organization.

Approximately 15 companies, among which were four local companies, participated in the bid to provide computer hardware and software procurement, network cabling, installation of servers and data equipment, testing, commissioning and warranty services to the Organization of the African Unity (OAU).

This investment (which is the first of its kind for the OAU) will enable the funded organization, OAU, to implement a campus-wide network interconnecting six
