

As Our Jewish New Year Begins, What Are Your Tough Jewish Questions?

Rabbis Joshua Caruso, Jordana Chernow-Reader, Robert Nosanchuk and Cantor Sarah Sager

FOUR QUESTIONS: A New Adult Education Series

SATURDAYS, OCT. 3-24, 9:15 -10:30 A.M.

Why wait until Passover to ask four questions and discuss with others?

Join the Fairmount Temple clergy team as they co-teach a new Saturday morning four-part adult education series, each based on a tough question on our minds and in our hearts. They will relate that week's tough question to the Torah portion for that Shabbat morning.

Come to as many sessions as your schedule allows. Sessions are held in the Arthur J. Lelyveld Center for Jewish Learning.

Oct. 3, "What if I Doubt God?" led by Rabbi Jordana Chernow-Reader

Oct. 10, "What Does Judaism Really Say about the Creation of the World?" led by Cantor Sarah Sager

Oct. 17, "Does Judaism Allow Violence and Vengeance?" led by Rabbi Robert Nosanchuk

Oct. 24, "Who Needs Judaism - Isn't It Enough Just to be a Good Person?" led by Rabbi Joshua Caruso

All are Welcome!

What are your questions? Adult education programs, Torah classes and learning opportunities to explore Jewish spirituality are growing at Fairmount Temple. Contact Julianna Senturia at Jsenturia@fairmounttemple.org or 216-447-9533 to share ideas and learn more.
