

The Oregon Military Teen Panel Wants You!

The application deadline is June 14, 2015

Do you have a desire to connect with other military connected teens and be a leader in Oregon?

Working with other military connected youth and sharpening leaderships skills is a constant for the Oregon Military Teen Panel Members.

Weekend retreats, facilitating an activity together, planning an event, and improving the lives of other military connected youth, the Oregon Military Teen Panel is always engaging other military connected youth in activities and discussions.

See the ORMTP Application for more information.
