Dear Fr. John,

No words can properly express our gratitude to the Augustinian Friars of the Province of St. Thomas of Villanova for your strong and thoughtful expression of support. Your solidarity sustains us during this time of prayer and conversation as we discern our next steps in response to the Congregation for the Doctrine of Faith's doctrinal assessment and subsequent mandate.

We continue to draw inspiration from those courageous sisters and brothers who have gone before us, who saw their obstacles as blessings as they proceeded in carrying out the Word of God. Please pray for us and the leaders of our Church, that through dialogue and collaboration, we can together better serve the People of God, especially those most in need.

Your support is such an encouragement. Please convey our heartfelt thanks to all the members of the Province of St. Thomas Villanova for their companionship on this journey.

Most Sincerely,

Janet Mock, CSJ
Executive Director
