BACKGROUND

Jesus Christ had been raised from the dead

Different people had encounters with him

The first witnesses to the resurrection were women

OUTLINE

Jesus and the women (Lk 24:1-12)

Jesus and the two disciples (Lk 24:13-35)

Jesus and the eleven disciples (Lk 24:36-49)

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the tomb (1-3)

The women and the angels (4-9)

The women and the eleven (10-12)

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the tomb (1-3)

The women took spices

They found the stone rolled away

They did not see the body of the Lord

What could have been some of their questions?

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the angels (4-9)

The women were perplexed

ἀπορέω (aporeō)- to be doubtful, perplexed, fearful, not understand or confused

Two men stood by them

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the angels (4-9)

The two men had dazzling apparel

They asked the women “Why do you seek the living among the dead?”

The men responded “He is not here, but has risen”

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the angels (4-9)

They continued “Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise”

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the eleven (10-12)

The women remembered his words

The women witness to the eleven and the other disciples

Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women spoke to the apostles

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the eleven (10-12)

These words seemed an idle tale

λῆρος (lēros)- idle talk, nonsense, chatter

It was totally incomprehensible

The eleven and the others did not believe them

JESUS AND THE WOMEN (1-12)

The women and the eleven (10-12)

But Peter rose and ran to the tomb

He saw the linen cloths by themselves

He went home marveling

θαυμάζω (thaumazō)- to be amazed, in wonder, astonished, surprised

JESUS AND THE TWO (13-35)

The two walked and spoke about Jesus (13-14)

The two did not recognize Jesus (15-24)

The two were taught by Jesus (25-29)

The two recognized Jesus (30-32)

The two witnessed about Jesus (33-35)

JESUS AND THE TWO (13-35)

The two walked and spoke about Jesus (13-14)

They were on their way to a village called Emmaus
It was a distance of sixty stadia (6.6 miles or 10.8 kilometers)

They were discussing what had occurred

JESUS AND THE TWO (13-35)

The two did not recognize Jesus (15-24)

Jesus walked up to join them

Their eyes were kept from recognizing him

Christ asked them what they were talking about

The two were sad and downcast

Jesus continues to walk alongside them

JESUS AND THE TWO (13-35)

The two did not recognize Jesus (15-24)

They started to tell Jesus what had happened:

Christ was a prophet, mighty in deed and word before God and the people

The rulers delivered him to be crucified

The disciples hoped that Jesus would redeem Israel

However, some had testified that he had risen

JESUS AND THE TWO (13-35)

The two were taught by Jesus (25-29)

Christ admonishes them: “O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets he interpreted Scripture to them concerning himself

They arrived at Emmaus and invited Jesus to stay

JESUS AND THE TWO (13-35)

The two recognized Jesus (30-32)

Jesus blessed, broke the bread and gave them some

Their eyes were opened and they recognized him

Jesus disappears from their sight

The two shared their experience with each other

JESUS AND THE TWO (13-35)

The two witnessed about Jesus (33-35)

They immediately returned to Jerusalem

They found the eleven and others

The group spoke about the Lord's resurrection

The two listened about the Lord appearing to Simon

The two also witnessed about seeing Jesus

JESUS AND THE ELEVEN (36-49)

Jesus appears to the eleven (36-43)

Jesus teaches the eleven (44-48)

Jesus instructs the eleven (49)

JESUS AND THE ELEVEN (36-49)

Jesus appears to the eleven (36-43)

Jesus stands among them

The group is startled and frightened

They believe they are seeing a spirit

Jesus shows them he is not a spirit by eating some fish

JESUS AND THE ELEVEN (36-49)

Jesus teaches the eleven (44-48)

Jesus reminds them what he previously said to them

Jesus fulfilled what was in the law of Moses, the Prophets and Psalms (Jesus' Bible)

Jesus opens up their minds so that they can understand the Scriptures

JESUS AND THE ELEVEN (36-49)

Jesus teaches the eleven (44-48)

Jesus tells them that his death and resurrection were necessary

In addition, repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations

They are witnesses of these things

JESUS AND THE ELEVEN (36-49)

Jesus instructs the eleven (49)

Jesus will send the promise of the Father upon them

The eleven are to wait in Jerusalem until they are clothed with power from on high

SUMMARY

Jesus and the women (1-12)

Jesus and the two disciples (13-35)

Jesus and the eleven disciples (36-49)

CONCLUSION

The three encounters have one thing in common: each one witnessed to others about Christ's death and resurrection

Where are you in the story ?

Let's pray
