Dear Friends of Music and Arts at Church Street,

Another outstanding year of Church Street Music and Arts awaits the Knoxville Community! We hope that you will take full advantage of the array of offerings brought to you by Church Street’s Master Arts Series. This year’s line-up will include an Arthur Miller play, a Sacred Spaces and Arts Journey to Washington DC and New York City, as well as an abundance of organ and choral music headlined by one of the world’s finest vocal ensembles, New York Polyphony. We encourage your support by making financial gifts to the Master Arts Series. Please see inside the back cover of this booklet for more instructions. Those who make donations to support the series will receive complimentary tickets were applicable. We thank you in advance for your support of the Master Arts Series at Church Street.

Tim Ward & Edie Johnson

Arthur Miller’s All My Sons tells the story of an American family caught up in the struggle between personal responsibility and duty to their country. Join the cast and special guests for a post-show discussion of the themes in the play and how they appear in our own communities. Presented in association with the Knoxville Theatre Workshop, directed by Jessica Magers-Rankin. This play contains mature subject matter and is not recommended for children.

Sacred Spaces and Arts Journey
A trip to New York City and Washington DC

Come with us on a journey filled with beautiful art, music, entertainment and architecture. We will leave Knoxville on November 2 and travel by tour bus to New York City, enjoying the rich fall scenery on the way.

While in New York City, we will:
• Attend an opera, The Magic Flute, by Mozart at the Metropolitan Opera at Lincoln Center (orchestra seating)
• Attend a Broadway Show, Les Misérables, at the Imperial Theatre
• Tour the Cathedral of St. John the Divine
• Take a 4-hour guided tour of mid-town and some upper and lower Manhattan
• Enjoy plenty of free time for shopping and visiting museums

While in Washington DC, we will:
• Take a guided tour of the National Cathedral
• Visit the National Gallery of Art
• Attend a show, Little Dancer, at the Eisenhower Theater
• Take a 4-hour guided evening tour of DC to include prominent monuments including Lincoln, Jefferson, Vietnam, Korean, Iwo Jima, FDR, MLK, and more!

New York Polyphony is regarded as one of the finest vocal chamber ensembles in the world. The four men apply a distinctly modern touch to repertoire that ranges from austere medieval melodies to cutting-edge contemporary compositions. Their dedication to innovative programming, as well as a focus on rare and rediscovered works, has not only earned them critical acclaim and a devoted following, but also helped to move early music into the classical mainstream.
