35th Annual Fall Educational Summit Thinking in Terms of Tomorrow

Who should attend this increasingly important event?

All elected officials!

What's the significance of attending the CCCA Fall Educational Summit?

It is vital that all elected officials be educated and aware of what is going on in regards to the present and future of water, transportation, public safety and Employee Associations. Come out and learn about how you can prepare your community and constituents for today and tomorrow in the ever changing world.
