

DID YOU KNOW?

--Sea Isle City's new Municipal Website has been launched! Visit www.seaislecitynj.us to see our website's new design – and learn how easy it is to find info about your local government.

--Dogs are once again permitted on Sea Isle's beaches. Enjoy the off-season on the sand with your favorite pooch!

--Channel 97 offers community information throughout the day and night (on the hour and half-hour).

--Sea Isle's new 29,000 square-foot City Hall / Public Safety Building on JFK Boulevard is ADA compliant. It also has City Council Chamber with a 134-person capacity and updated technology for visual presentations.

--It is illegal to block the sidewalk with a vehicle when parking in a private driveway.

--Venicean Road is now 15 mph – all the way from 44th Street to the Yacht Club.

--Pleasure Avenue is now 15 mph for the entire length. Also, parts of Pleasure Avenue that once were two-way are now one-way...so be on the lookout for new traffic patterns.

--Sea Isle City offers online view and payment options for municipal property tax bills and water/sewer utility bills (visit www.seaislecitynj.us and click on the "Tax & Utility Payment Center" icon at the bottom of the homepage). You can mail-in a payment as always, or pay online through your checking account, credit card or debit card. Please Note: Online viewing is free; however a convenience charge will be applied if you pay your bills online.

--Sea Isle City Ordinance 18-1.6 requires all trash and recycling be put in proper receptacles when placed on the curb for collection. Please remember that plastic trash bags are not considered proper receptacles – except to seagulls, which have no problem cutting open plastic bags as they search for a feast.

--Residents and property owners can register their bicycles with the Sea Isle City Police Department free of charge. For more info, phone 263-4311.

--New Jersey State law requires motorists to stop for pedestrians in all crosswalks – even if a crosswalk does not have painted stripes on the road.

-- Sea Isle City's 2015 Drinking Water Quality Report (aka: Consumer Confidence Report) can be seen on the City's Municipal Website, www.seaislecitynj.us (under the City Departments / Public Works link). Paper copies of the report are available at Sea Isle's Welcome Center, 300 JFK Boulevard, and City Hall, 4501 Park Road.

--The Sea Isle City Police Department offers a free service called the Citizen Call-Check Program to help ensure the safety of residents who live alone. Residents who are registered with the CCC program call the police each morning to say "I am OK" – and if that call does not come to police headquarters, an officer will follow-up with a phone call or (if need be) a knock on your front door. For more info or to register your name and contact info with the SICPD's Citizen Call-Check Program, please phone the Police Records Department Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., at (609) 263-4311, ext. 2223 (for Joann Morelli) or ext. 2246 (for Eleanor Sacco).

--Sea Isle's free mobile app, which can be downloaded to smart phones and tablets, will help you stay aware of local events while on the go.

--Paper copies of this E-Newsletter are available. You can pick-up a free copy at City Hall, 4501 Park Road, and the Welcome Center, 300 JFK Boulevard.

--Cape May County has an emergency website, which offers online information about weather hazards, tides and other urgent news: www.capemaycountyemergency.net.
