

SPOTLIGHT: Most commonly asked questions.

Q. Can anyone attend?

A. Yes. All children and families of Illinois regardless of their participation in PTA activities are invited to enjoy this afternoon celebration of our children.

Q. Does a member of our group need to be a PTA member?

A. No. This event is open to ALL children and families of Illinois regardless of your affiliation with Illinois PTA.

Q. Is there a cost to attend?

A. No. This is a FREE event for ALL children and families of Illinois provided by the Illinois PTA with help from our sponsors.

Q. Do I need to register to attend?

A. To ensure there is space and supplies available for the workshop you wish to attend, it is recommended that you register. Many workshops have a limit on the number of students who may attend and many require that the supplies be purchased in advance.

Q. What Reflections pieces will be on display?

A. All Reflections pieces that advanced to the State level will be on display or available for viewing.

Q. Who will be recognized during the Recognition Ceremony?

A. Reflections artists with a Reflections piece that advanced to the National Level, Reflections artists receiving an Honorable Mention from the Illinois PTA, and Student Service Leader Award recipients.

Q. Can we take our child's Reflections piece home with us after the event?

A. No. Though we understand many would wish to take their child's Reflections piece home with them, to ensure that no piece leaves the exhibit in error, Reflections pieces will be returned to the PTA unit that we received them from.

Q. Does my child need to bring anything with them for the workshops?

A. Unless stated in the description for the workshop your child will be attending, all materials will be supplied by Illinois PTA and our sponsors.

Q. How can my child participate in the PTA Reflections program in the future?

A. *Any child attending a school with an affiliated PTA or with parent(s) who are members of a community PTA may participate in the Reflections program through their PTA. If your child's school is not affiliated, you may become a member of the Lincolnland PTA or other community PTA so your child may be a participant in the Reflections program in the future.
