

UAH Research Horizons Day Student Poster Session and Research Week Activities

The Research Horizons Day Student Poster Session will be held on Tuesday, April 7, immediately following the University Honors Convocation Ceremony which starts at 8:30 a.m. Graduate and undergraduate students from across campus will be displaying posters of research and creative projects in the Student Success Center located in the Louis Salmon Library (behind Charger Brew). Posters will be on display April 7-10. Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to participate in all Research Week Events:

Tuesday, April 7, 9:30 a.m. – Noon (immediately after the University Honors Convocation Ceremony)

- Student Poster Session (Student Success Center, Louis Salmon Library). A total of 62 graduate and undergraduate students, representing every college, will be on hand to discuss posters of their research and creative projects. Light refreshments.

Wednesday, April 8

- Student poster viewing all day (SSC, Louis Salmon Library) with an Online Scavenger Hunt for prizes.

- noon – 1 p.m.: Lunchtime Talk (Louis Salmon Library room 111) with Dr. Robert Lindquist, director of the Center for Applied Optics and Associate Vice President for Research and Economic Development. “Starting Your Research as an Academic.” Food and beverages.

Thursday, April 9

- Student poster viewing all day (SSC, Louis Salmon Library) with an Online Scavenger Hunt for prizes.

- noon – 1 p.m.: Lunchtime Talk (Louis Salmon Library room 111) with Kannan Grant, director of the UAH Office of Technology Development. “IP Primer: A Practical Approach to Technology Commercialization.” Food and beverages.

Friday, April 10

·Student poster viewing all day (SSC, Louis Salmon Library) with an Online Scavenger Hunt for prizes.

·11a.m. – 12:30 p.m.: “So You Think You Can Research” (Louis Salmon Library room 111). Networking and sharing of student creative projects and research with one slide and a short pitch. Food, beverages and prizes.