Cyprian Davis

The History of Black Catholics in the United States

This book makes an extremely valuable contribution to our understanding of African-American religious life by presenting the first full-length treatment of the Black Catholic experience. It should be read by all interested in the history and culture of Black Americans.

ISBN: 978-0-8245-5008-0 $24.95 pb / 366 pages

Winner of the John Gilmary Shea Award
from the American Catholic Historical Association

Fr. Cyprian Davis, OSB, and a Benedictine monk, is an award-winning scholar and professor emeritus of church history at Saint Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology. He taught at the Institute for Black Catholic Studies at Xavier University in New Orleans. He serves as archivist for Saint Meinrad Archabbey and for the Swiss-American Benedictine Congregation. He is a founding member of the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus.

"This book makes an extremely valuable contribution to our understanding of African-American religious life by presenting the first full-length treatment of the Black Catholic experience. It should be read by all interested in the history and culture of Black Americans."

—Albert Raboteau, Princeton University

"One of a dozen books that every Catholic should read."

—U.S. Catholic

"The fullest and most sensitive treatment to date. All students of religion and African-American history can learn from it."

—Journal of Southern History

"A goldmine. I cannot recommend it highly enough."

—Lawrence Cunningham, Commonweal
