Champlain St. Lawrence in rooms 347-349
The award-winning Canadian authors: Heather O'Neill and Ann Walmsley

All are welcome!

Heather O'Neill is an award-winning Montreal writer and novelist. O'Neill's first novel Lullabies for Little Criminals (2006), a publishing sensation in Canada, won the Hugh MacLennan Prize for Fiction, was shortlisted for eight other major awards, and went on to become an international bestseller. O'Neill was named by Chatelaine as one of the most influential women in Canada. Her second novel, The Girl Who Was Saturday Night (2014) and her short story collection, Daydreams of Angels (2015) have both been nominated for multiple awards.
