TAKE VTA TO LEVI'S® STADIUM FOR SUPER BOWL 50

VTA will be offering direct light rail service to Levi's® Stadium from select stations for Super Bowl ticket holders. VTA's mobile fare app, EventTIK, is the only way to buy your fare to get to Levi's Stadium using VTA on game day.

GETTING TO THE GAME

Plan Ahead - We recommend checking the light rail and bus schedules to plan your trip to the stadium or any SB50 related activities. For trip planning visit vta.org, 511.org, Google Maps, Moovit or Transit App, or call (408) 321-2300. Allow extra time for crowds and added security.

Buy Ahead - Buy your round trip ticket ahead of time—it will save you time and make your return trip easier. VTA's mobile fare app, EventTIK, is the only way to purchase VTA and/or VTA/Caltrain Joint Super Bowl fare to Levi's Stadium for Super Bowl Sunday. See the VTA FARE section on the reverse side for more information.

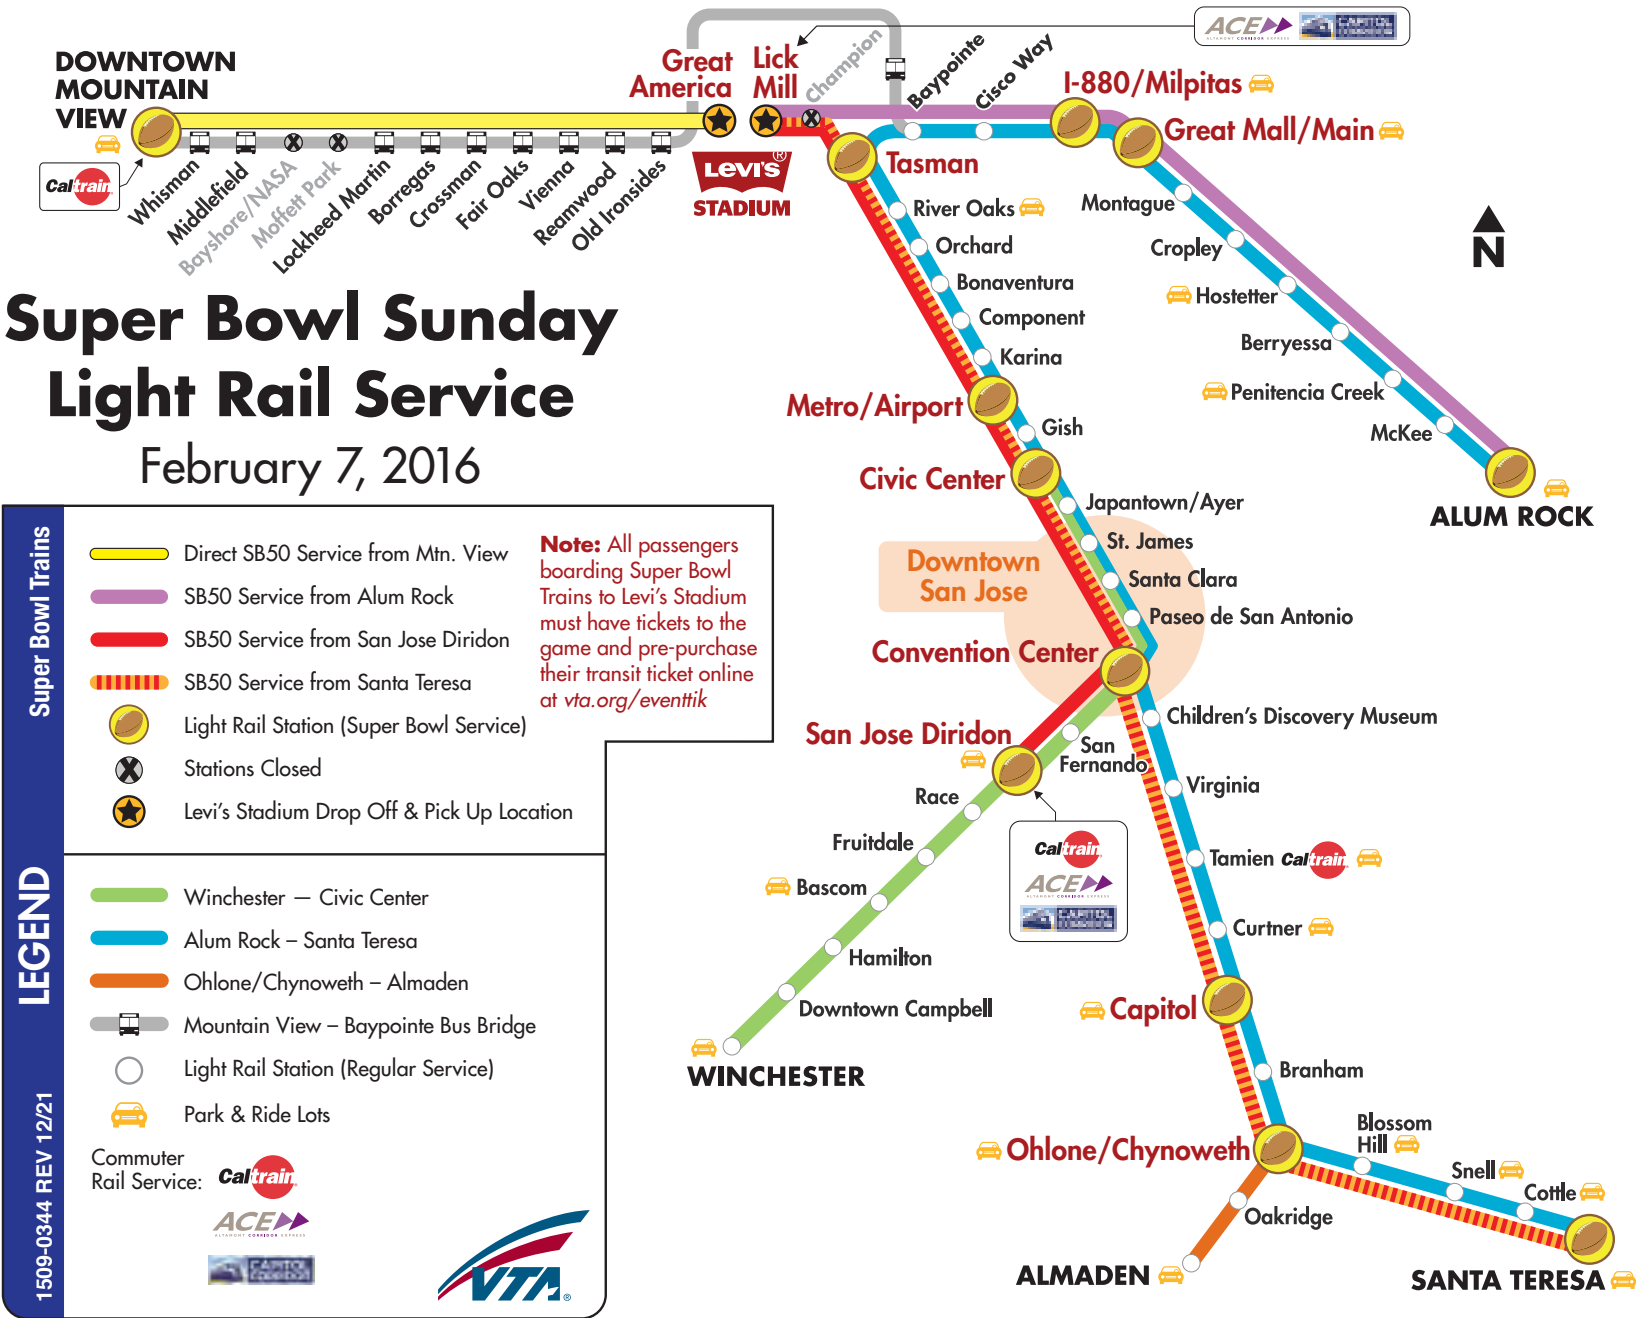

Think Ahead - Know when the last buses or trains run for the evening. VTA will be providing SB50 limited-stop service to Levi's Stadium on "Super Bowl Trains" which only stop at the light rail stations marked with a 🚗 on the map below. These trains can only be accessed by passengers with a Super Bowl 50 game ticket AND a valid Super Bowl 50 VTA Day Pass using VTA's EventTIK mobile fare app.

Game Day Service - Super Bowl Trains coming from Mountain View will arrive at the Great America Light Rail Station, right in front of Levi's Stadium. Super Bowl Trains coming from all other directions, including downtown San Jose, will arrive at the Lick Mill Light Rail Station where all Super Bowl attendees will disembark and walk a short distance to Levi's Stadium. After the game, passengers should catch their trains at the same station where they were dropped off.

Light rail passengers not going to the Super Bowl will take alternate bus service between Mountain View and Baypointe stations.
