

The Naomi Anolic Early Career Jewish Visual Arts Award

The Naomi Anolic Early Career Jewish Visual Arts Award is intended to support and provide momentum for Jewish artists who are early in their artistic careers and who would benefit from the support and recognition this award would provide. An applicant for the Naomi Anolic Award will have demonstrated great potential, but not yet have achieved broad success or be considered well established professionally.

The 2016 cycle of this award will focus on PAINTING AND DRAWING.

Amount of Award: $750

Who may apply? Active early career Jewish artists between the ages of twenty-five and thirty-five may apply.

Who may not apply? Students may not apply.

To apply, submit the following:

A one-page proposal that addresses the following:

- Why you are applying? Why do you consider yourself an early career artist?
- Describe your project in detail and explain in what way the award will help support it.
- Explain how Judaism informs and is realized in your work. The use of overt Jewish imagery is not a requirement.

Evidence of your work: Submit ten images that are the best representation of your work:

- Images must be in JPEG format.
- The size of your JPEG files should be as follows: 1024 pixels on its longest side and no larger than 3 MB each.
- Please label each image as follows:
Last name_First name_image# (Example: Doe_Jane_#1, etc).

An image list: Identify each submitted work with the image #, title, date, medium, dimensions. You may also include other relevant information here (i.e. was the work exhibited? Did it win an award?). Please include your name and contact information at the top of your image list.

Your artist resume of no more than two pages: Please include all professional art experience, exhibitions and any other information you feel will be relevant to support your application.

What else do I need to know? Your project must be completed within a year of receiving the award. At the end of the award year the artist must provide a brief artist's statement (no more than 500 words) and visual documentation of the work completed. The Anolic family also stipulates that the Naomi Anolic Early Career Jewish Visual Arts Award be credited in any exhibition or publication of the completed project.

Submission deadline: May 1st, 2016 Award announcement: July 2016
