

DO SOMETHING DYNAMIC!

A strategic initiative of ServeMinnesota

Reading Corps heroes come from all walks of life – recent graduates, career changers, parents, veterans, and retirees.

They use their superpowers to:

- Give back to the community through service
- Show up on time, every day for the kids
- Accept feedback, adapt to change, improve, and develop
- Instill a love for learning and literacy in children

COMMITMENTS
	Full-time Position	Part-time Position
Commitment	11 months	11 months
Total Service Hours Required	1,720 hours	920 hours
Minimum Hours per Week	40 hours	20 hours
Consistent Schedule*	Monday-Friday	Monday-Friday

*During school hours + some evenings and weekends

“Working with students is certainly rewarding because of the great gains that they make. Their young brains soak up knowledge quickly and it is exciting to see them gain confidence as their skills improve.”

– Karl Bonde, K-3 tutor
Pillsbury Elementary School
Minneapolis, Minnesota

POWER YOUR FUTURE.

FINANCIAL BENEFITS

	Full-time Position	Part-time Position
Living Allowance (Paid every two weeks)	$544	$272
Education Award 	$5,775	$2,887
Federal Student Loan Forbearance	✓	✓
Health Insurance	✓ (No cost to you)
Child Care Assistance (Based on family size & income)	✓

If you are currently a paid teacher in a PreK Reading Corps site, click here.

Family Child Care PreK tutors serving part-time earn a full-time living allowance.

Individuals may only earn the total value of two full-time education awards (currently $11,505).

Reading Corps tutors transform lives for students. They also receive some pretty life-changing benefits.

Here's what one tutor had to say about her experience:

"Reading Corps is an amazing program that gives members the tools and strategies to go out and help children learn valuable literacy skills."

– Stephanie Scierka, PreK tutor
The Heights Community School
Saint Paul, Minnesota

