Program

Learn about the new state-wide Orphans' Court rules and how they will affect your practice in Franklin County.

Facilitators, James F. Mannion and the Honorable Shawn D. Meyers

Mannion Prior founder and Managing Partner James F. Mannion concentrates his practice exclusively on Orphans' Court litigation, and is recognized as a leading member of Pennsylvania's Orphans' Court Bar. His practice includes fiduciary litigation, will contests, trust disputes, estate litigation, guardianship proceedings and litigation, fee and commission disputes, and non-profit/charitable litigation.

Since January, 2010 the Honorable Shawn D. Meyers has served as a judge for the Court of Common Pleas for the 39th Judicial District which is the general trial court for Franklin & Fulton Counties, Pennsylvania. Judge Meyers chairs the 39th Judicial District Orphan's Court Local Rules Committee, 39th Judicial District Civil Procedure Local Rules Committee, and is a member of the Franklin County eFiling and Civil Case Management Committee.
