Parish Family

REAL PEOPLE + REAL PRESENCE

... a welcoming Roman Catholic family of God empowered by the Holy Spirit to grow our relationship with Jesus Christ and with one another as we worship, pray, learn and serve.

But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

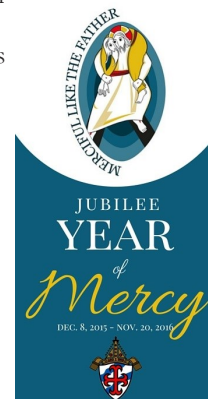

Living in Mercy

No greater burden! You just have to love the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles (15:1-2, 22-29—go ahead, read the whole chapter). It describes the dissention and debate in Antioch, the knock-down, drag-out fight among good people. Who should do what? How should you behave? What should you believe? Sound familiar? Not un-similar to our own day is it!

A delegation goes to Jerusalem; Paul and Peter “have it out”, they talk, debate, ponder. Then the whole Church, all of them decide what is right. Unity in the dead and risen Lord is uppermost. Place no greater burden to unity at the Lord's table. Here are fundamentals for debate:

- Believe in the Trinity and the power of Christ to save.
- Behave as lovers.
- Do the works of mercy placing no undue burden.

Prepare for next week: Read and reflect on The Ascension of the Lord (beginning on pg. 256) in the “Living Liturgy” missal.

An Easter View from 40th & Wilson

FR. CHRIS ROUECH
frchris@spxcatholic.org

ANOINTED: FOR HEALING, FOR MISSION

On Monday evening, about 50 young parishioners will be anointed with oil on their foreheads as they receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral of St. Andrew.

Then on Friday, parishioners who are suffering from illness or aging will be anointed on their foreheads during the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at a special 10am Mass here at St. Pius X.

Isn't it fascinating how the ritual is the same for both sacraments?

While the holy oils and the purposes for the sacraments of Confirmation and the Anointing of the Sick are very different, both express the core reality of our identity as Catholic-Christians: chosen by Christ and open to the will of the Father as disciples.

I am tempted to write scads more about this wonderful reality of our faith, but I have not the space nor the time. Instead, I want to encourage those who'd benefit from the Anointing of the Sick to please avail themselves of this sacrament. If you can't make it to Mass on Friday, seek me out (or find another priest.)

"When the sacrament...is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness," explains the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults. "But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age."

Here's what's also significant about the sacrament of the sick, which is also intended for the faithful anticipating surgery or battling mental illness: "The Holy Spirit renews our faith in God and helps us withstand the temptations of the Evil One to be discouraged and despairing in the face of suffering and death," the catechism states.

Ascension Sunday — Our 50-day celebration of Easter is nearing its end.

A signal for that is next Sunday's focus on the Ascension of the Lord. Remember, after Jesus rose from the dead and appeared multiple times to his disciples, another wondrous miracle happened: "he was lifted up, and a cloud took them from his sight. (Acts 1:11).

Why? You'll find the answer in one of the prayers we will pray at Mass next Sunday:

"He ascended, not to distance himself from our lowly state, but that we, his members, might be confident of following where he, our Head and Founder, has gone before."

This concept of us being united with God in heaven can never be fully understood with our minds. Only the heart can grasp it. That's why we call it the Paschal Mystery.

Paulist Father Chuck Cuniff, CSP will have the pleasure of celebrating the Ascension of the Lord at St. Pius X. I will be in Bay City celebrating my father's 80th birthday. Then I will take part in my annual priest retreat until Sunday, May 15 — Pentecost.

DEADLINE APPROACHING FOR SURVEYS!

We've been communicating that the parish is conducting a feasibility study to obtain feedback regarding the Campus and Facilities Master Plan that has emerged after extensive planning.

Member households have been mailed information about the plan and a short survey. Some parishioners have also been asked to take part in a personal interview.

Parishioner feedback is very important at this stage. Please take the few minutes needed to complete the short survey. We need all the surveys back by May 9.

If you received a survey and prefer instead to share your thoughts personally with a member of The Breton Group, (the firm hired to help us gather parishioner feedback), call the parish office this week and we'll schedule a time for your personal interview.

If you still have not received the packet in the mail, please let us know by calling the parish office and we'll get it out to you.

Go to spxcatholic.org/campus-facility-plan for more information about this proposed project, and take a look at the conceptual drawings in the vestibule.

Growing in Christ

Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: Jesus tells his disciples in this Sunday's gospel, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you." This is a pretty significant gift from God to the disciples and one we continue to receive. When I look at this gift of peace through the lens of stewardship, I see how I must find ways to nurture peace in my life and return it with increase back to God. While prayer has been an essential part to nurturing more peace in my life, a more challenging area has been exploring those parts of me where peace is lacking. These may be areas touched by conflicts with others or disappointments stemming from not living up to the person God created me to be. These areas are calling most of Christ's peace, and can only be helped by bringing them to the light and allowing God's mercy and grace to work through me and the situation to bring peace. It's messy work, but the peace it brings is lasting and makes me whole again. How are you being called to be a steward of peace? by Andy Rebollar, Pastoral Associate for Parish Life

PRAYER POST: Imaginative Prayer

The second method of imagining is to place ourselves fully within a story from the Gospels. We become onlooker-participants and give full rein to our imagination. Jesus is speaking to a blind man at the side of the road. We feel the hot Mediterranean sun beating down. We smell the dust kicked up by the passersby. We feel the itchy clothing we're wearing, the sweat rolling down our brow, a rumble of hunger. We see the desperation in the blind man's face and hear the wail of hope in his words. We note the irritation of the disciples. Above all we watch Jesus—the way he walks, his gestures, the words that are recorded in the Gospel. We go on to imagine other words he might have spoken and other deeds he might have done. (David Fleming S.J. www.ignatianspirituality.com). Pray with this Sunday's Gospel: John 14:23-29
