THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

"COMMUNION OF SAINTS"
refers also to the communion of "holy persons" (sancti) in Christ who "died for all," so that what each one does or suffers in and for Christ bears fruit for all. Catechism of the Catholic Church, 961

FAITH CHAT

The Beatitudes reveal the very Being of God: God's care for his people and his intent for his faithful ones. The Beatitudes reveal the mind and heart of God. Those who have encountered Him and lived the Beatitudes have the same mind and heart...we call them "saints."

Family Together: As members of the Church we are called to live the faith we profess. Live your faith today through a kind word, an offer of help, a smile, or a hug.

Prepare for next week: Read and reflect on the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (beginning on p. 409 in "Living Liturgy" missal).

Infant Baptisms are celebrated at various times throughout the year. If you believe raising your child in our Catholic faith is one of your most important duties as a parent, call the parish office.

Sacrament of Marriage — The lifelong covenant between a man and a woman is a sign of God's covenant with us. At least six months of prayer and preparation are needed before entering this commitment. Please contact Fr. Chris as soon as you are engaged. FR. CHRIS ROUECH

I groaned when I heard the DJ on my favorite radio station (WCYC) say that last week.

The monkeys in my mind began arguing with him: “Halloween is your favorite holiday? Really? You would put that above Easter? Or Christmas? Dear Lord, where is our country going to if Halloween is peoples’ favorite holiday...?”

But then I called the monkey house to order, and remembered the first step of interfaith dialogue. Instead of instantly judging another person, I need to get curious.

I wondered what makes Halloween so special to this guy. Dressing up in costume and going to parties? Handing out treats to children?

I did not take the opportunity to call him, but it’s obvious that Halloween is a favorite holiday for many people, based on the amount of money that is spent and the elaborate displays people put up in their yards.

I get defensive about Halloween because it often eclipses the Christian Holy Day from which it sprung: “All Hallows Eve.” That is what we celebrate today with the Solemnity of All Saints.

For Catholic-Christians, Nov. 1 launches a month of special commemoration of the faithful departed.

These are the weeks when we are encouraged to visit the cemetery to pray for our loved ones and prepare their graves for the winter.

We pray for those who have died, just as we pray for the living. We will have a special Mass for that at 11am next Saturday. (See page. 3)

From now until Advent, our worship space will feature a banner listing those who were buried from our parish in the past year. We will conclude Mass with the traditional prayer that Catholics pray at funerals:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace. Amen.

May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Had I talked with that disc jockey, I might have engaged in his enthusiasm for Halloween — and then I would have shared my truth: “All Saints is one of my favorite Holy Days of the year!”

I love All Saints because it celebrates that great party in heaven, with all those saints who loved Jesus Christ and did their best to follow him.

I love All Saints because of what it teaches us about the Catholic-Christian view of the cosmos.

For Halloween, people create alternative worlds, places where we might be amused by dancing skeletons or frightened by scenes of decapitation, surprise or gore.

The high from these things lasts about as long as a sugar buzz from candy. The pumpkins slowly rot away into the ground.

But All Saints and November are not about an alternative, fake world — but about the real world we live in as Christians.

A world where the living and the dead belong to one company, one community. We pray for one another, and are inspired by those who lead especially good lives of generosity or wisdom.

Best of all, we trust that our merciful God hears our prayers and through Christ we will know “the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.” Amen!

Campus and Facilities Master Plan Update

— Imagine having a spacious gathering area on one level outside church. Picture a youth room adjacent to Danner Hall. These are a few of the proposals in the first draft of a multi-phased construction plan. The committee is now exploring what project to present to you for support. Please continue to pray for our parish.

- Part II | Nov. 11 ~ 4 & 6pm | Nov. 15 ~ 9am
- Part III | Nov. 18 ~ 4 & 6pm | Nov. 22 ~ 9am

SAINTS ARE MARCHING IN! Each year the children of our Elementary Faith Formation programs put on presentations of various saints throughout history. All are welcome! Presentations are: Today (11/1) at 9:15am and Wednesday, Nov. 4 at 4:30pm & 6:30pm in Danner Hall.

UPCOMING EDGE is tonight (11/1) at 5:30pm...we will be looking at the history of Halloween and All Saints Day!

MIDDLE SCHOOL RETREATS will be held on Nov. 6 & 7 (guys) and Nov. 13-14 (girls); permission slips are available online. Volunteers are needed; contact me if you are able to help out!

BIG FAITH: small group for Advent: We've all seen the signs and bumper stickers that appear every fall: "Keep Christ in Christmas," "Jesus is the Reason for the Season." These messages remind us that the commercial frenzy that precedes Christmas often smothers the religious significance of the holiday. This year, step out of the whirlwind with Advent Awakenings: Say Yes to God, a faith sharing program from RENEW International. Consider being a part of a small group that will gather in someone's home or at church for four weekly sessions and sharing what we really are waiting for during the Advent season—the coming of the Savior. Look for sign-ups online or at church beginning in November.

YOUNG ADULTS will meet at 7pm on Nov. 2 & 16 in the lower level of the Parish Center. We will begin a study on the Mass. Please email me for more information.

NOVEL READERS BOOK CLUB will meet at 7pm on Monday, Nov. 16, in the McDuffee Room to discuss The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt. Contact Linda Stray (lindastray@yahoo.com or 249-8034) or Mary Boehm (meb2904@aol.com or 538-9635) with inquiries.

Wednesday, Nov. 11th ~ 7pm
Holy Redeemer Parish (Door A)
Presenter: Fr. Kevin Niehoff OP, JCL, adjutant judicial vicar Tribunal

You Want Your Marriage Declared What (null)? Well, Let Me Tell You How!

Are you, a family member or friend divorced and have never applied for a declaration of Nullity? Come hear exactly what is involved!

"A declaration of nullity, or what is commonly referred to as an annulment, is a statement granted by the Catholic Church that at the time two people exchanged marital consent, there was something essential missing that prevented a valid marriage bond from being formed."

November is a month of special commemoration of the faithful departed. The families of people who have had a funeral at St. Pius X since last October have been sent invitations to a special Mass and lunch on Saturday, Nov. 7.

Everyone is welcome to attend this Mass, and we especially want to invite anyone who has lost a loved one this past year. They are welcome to join those families for lunch afterward. Please RSVP by calling the office at 532-9344.

All are invited to bring in framed photographs of your departed loved ones. It would be particularly appropriate to bring in a photograph of those who have died since October 2014.

Growing in Christ

Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, where we honor all saints known and unknown. I love the idea of unknown saints. While not officially recognized by the Church, my Nana comes to mind in the way she reflected an unconditional love and acceptance for me. There are unknown saints all around us (living and dead), people who respond to God's promptings and are good stewards of the unique life God gave them. They may be in our families, within our friends, workplaces, or even someone we've passed as we move through our day. Someone may even see us as a saint. Holiness is all around us; God is all around us. We are all called to be saints, we are called to holiness, we are all called to God. It's here where we will find our fullness. So as stewards, we are called to see this and be this for others. How will you share your holiness with others this week? by Andy Rebollar, Pastoral Associate for Parish Life

ARE YOU LIVING OUT YOUR FAITH? If so, chances are you're also practicing stewardship. The two are intimately linked. The stewardship committee is looking for parishioners who look to continue to grow in their faith and understanding of what it means to be a steward. The committee's hosting an open invite information meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 7pm in the McDuffee Room. Come join us and see if the Holy Spirit may be calling you to the Stewardship Committee.

A Place to Call Home

The children are in the house! This is really cause for celebration and is truly an answer to many prayers. Many of these children were displaced by the earthquake in 2010 and then again by the hurricane in 2012. You might remember that in 2012 Sr. Luvia needed to move them from Miragoane back to Port-au-Prince and they've been living together with the Sisters in very crowded conditions...more than 70 girls with the Sisters!

Sr. Luvia said the girls were celebrating the move to the house, and I would imagine the Sisters were too! She said that the priest celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving in the house. She is very grateful to all of you and to the countless others for their prayers and financial support.
