empowered by the Holy Spirit to grow our relationship with Jesus Christ and with one another as we worship, pray, learn and serve.

FAITH CHAT

Bartimaeus's actions say everything about faith, encountering Jesus, and choosing to follow him. With the healing of blind Bartimaeus, Mark places before us one who quickly comes to see through the persistence of faith. The blind man sees Jesus with the eyes of faith and is saved, healed, and follows Jesus as a true disciple. Do I see with the eyes of faith?

Family Together: Discuss what you would say if Jesus asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"

Prepare for next week: Read and reflect on All Saints Day (beginning on p. 404 in "Living Liturgy" missal).

Do you expect to get to heaven after you die?

The vast majority of Americans believe they will be welcomed at St. Peter's Gate, according to polls.

And who do you imagine will be with you in eternity?

These shortening days of fall make this a natural time to ponder the ultimate destination for ourselves and those dear to us. Our traditions for the month of November illustrate our rich Catholic-Christian understanding about life after death.

On Sunday, Nov. 1, we celebrate the SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS. This joyful feast celebrates our belief that Heaven is for Real and there are many exceptionally holy people already living forever with Jesus Christ.

On Monday, Nov. 2, we observe THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED, (ALL SOULS DAY.) On All Souls, we express our concern for those departed ones who might not have lived exceptionally holy lives. We pray that God will have mercy on them, and that after they have gone through a period of purification for their sins, (purgatory), they too will see God face to face. Mass will not be celebrated at St. Pius X on Monday, Nov. 2...join us for our Special Mass of Remembrance on Saturday, Nov. 7 at 11am.

At St. Pius X Parish, we will continue our traditions of honoring our beloved departed in these ways:

❖ Throughout the month of November, we will display in church a banner listing the names of those whose funerals were in our parish this past year. In addition, you are invited to bring in framed photographs of your departed loved ones. It would be particularly appropriate to bring in a photograph of those who have died since October 2014. Please include your contact information so we can be sure the photo is returned.

❖ Families of people who have had a funeral at St. Pius since last October are invited to a special Mass and lunch for All Souls on Saturday, Nov. 7. Everyone is welcome to attend this Mass, but we especially want to invite anyone in the parish who has lost a loved one this past year. They are welcome to join those families for lunch afterward. Please RSVP by calling the office.

Finally, November is the traditional month for visiting the cemetery to ensure the grave is being cared for.

Will you go to heaven after you die? Only God knows. Our November traditions express our desires that others are enjoying eternal peace.

Remember the Faithful Departed

ALL SAINTS DAY

Will be celebrated at weekend Masses on Oct. 31 & Nov. 1

SPECIAL MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 7

"TAKE COURAGE, GET UP, JESUS IS CALLING YOU" is the invitation given to Bartimaeus by the disciples in this Sunday's gospel. Bartimaeus, through his faith, life was changed as he received his sight and chose to follow Jesus, becoming one of his disciples. Surprisingly, discipleship is the ultimate goal of stewardship, and not increased collections or even volunteers. When one chooses to embrace a fuller understanding of stewardship, they are led into a deeper relationship with Jesus and their faith. The stewardship committee is tasked with helping the parish understand this message more fully and is looking for a few parishioners who may be interested in growing in their faith and potentially offering their gifts through the committee. We invite you to "take courage, get up" and prayerfully consider if Jesus is calling you to become a new member of the stewardship committee. An informational meeting will be held on Nov. 10 at 7pm for anyone with interest or questions. All are welcome. Are you being called to something greater?

SAINTS ARE MARCHING IN! Each year the children of our Elementary Faith Formation programs put on presentations of various saints throughout history in Danner Hall. All are welcome! Presentations are: Sunday, Nov. 1 at 9:15am and Wednesday, Nov. 4 at 4:30pm & 6:30pm.

UPCOMING EDGE is tonight (10/25) at 5:30pm...we will continue our series on Pope John Paul II's Theology of the Body!

MIDDLE SCHOOL RETREATS will be held on Nov. 6 & 7 (guys) and Nov. 13-14 (girls); permission slips are available online. Volunteers are needed; contact me if you are able to help out!

BIG FAITH: small group for Advent: We've all seen the signs and bumper stickers that appear every fall: "Keep Christ in Christmas," "Jesus is the Reason for the Season." These messages remind us that the commercial frenzy that precedes Christmas often smothers the religious significance of the holiday. This year, step out of the whirlwind with Advent Awakenings: Say Yes to God, a faith sharing program from RENEW International. Consider being a part of a small group that will gather in someone's home or at church for four weekly sessions and sharing what we really are waiting for during the Advent season—the coming of the Savior. Look for sign-ups online or at church beginning in November.

YOUNG ADULTS will meet at 7pm on Nov. 2 & 16 in the lower level of the Parish Center. We will begin a study on the Mass. Please email me for more information.

NOVEL READERS BOOK CLUB will meet at 7pm on Monday, Nov. 16, in the McDuffee Room to discuss The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt. Contact Linda Stray (lindastray@yahoo.com or 249-8034) or Mary Boehm (meb2904@aol.com or 538-9635) with inquiries.

Wednesday, Nov. 11th ~ 7pm
Holy Redeemer Parish (Door A)
Presenter: Fr. Kevin Niehoff OP, JCL, adjutant judicial vicar Tribunal

"A declaration of nullity, or what is commonly referred to as an annulment, is a statement granted by the Catholic Church that at the time two people exchanged marital consent, there was something essential missing that prevented a valid marriage bond from being formed."

Something you may not realize about St. Pius X. We are registered with the American Red Cross as an emergency shelter. The fire at Wimbledon Apartments on Oct. 19 affected 15 families. We were contacted to see if our facility was available, if needed. This picture is a few of the workers present to assist those in need. We can be proud of our willingness and ability to say "yes" when we were asked to help. As Fr. Dick Host pointed out in last week's homily, we never know when or whom Christ may ask us to serve.

Growing in Christ Weekly Stewardship Report

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: After healing the blind man in today's Gospel, Jesus told him to go, to be on his way. But the man decided to follow Jesus. Being a disciple of Jesus is a choice. The stewardship way of life likewise involves a choice. In fact many choices. We choose to be grateful, we choose to live generously, and we choose to trust that God will always provide for our needs. These are three choices central to the stewardship way of life. What choices will we make this week that give witness to our decision to follow Christ? from the October 2015 ICSC Catholic Stewardship e-Bulletin.
