

Business Analyst

Role: Provide program management and analysis support. The candidate will work under the management of a senior-level consultant with exposure to the senior management team including the COO and CEO.

Location: Work location will be split between the client's work site in Washington DC, the Oceaneast office in Rosslyn, VA, and the candidate's remote office

Qualifications:

- 1+ years of management consulting experience required
- Experience working with Federal agencies
- Strong analytical, communication, and client interaction skills required
- Strong Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) required
- Experience working with and analyzing data and developing PowerPoint presentations and white papers required
- Knowledge of IT and particularly the software marketplace preferred
- Federal acquisition knowledge preferred

For more information and how to apply, contact Lido Ramadan at ramadanl@oceaneastonline.com.