

THE WEST VIRGINIA STATE BAR
2013 REGIONAL MEETINGS
ONE-DAY COURSE HELD OCTOBER 1-24, 2013

AGENDA

The State Bar will have different instructors at some of the locations and the order of the presentations will not necessarily be in the same order on each date or location. Each session will be fifty minutes of instruction time and will qualify for ethics, law office management, substance abuse or elimination of bias credit.

Takin' Down Your Shingle – This presentation will cover details and information relevant to the voluntary closing of a law practice, succession planning, the involuntary closing of a law practice, how to deal with trustee issues, and will discuss recent cases handled by the Office of Disciplinary counsel. - Presented by attorneys of the West Virginia Office of Disciplinary Counsel

WVeFile – This presentation will provide an introduction to the new Circuit Court e-filing system which will become operational in some counties in West Virginia in the fall of 2013. - Presented by members of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals Administrative Office.

Making your practice of law happy, happy, happy while dealing with substance abuse issues in the workplace – This presentation will address substance abuse issues that may arise in your office, with opposing counsel, with clients and with the courts and will provide information and suggestions on how to most effectively deal with the issues. - Presented by Officers of the West Virginia Army National Guard.