

“MAKING A DIFFERENCE” PUBLIC RECOGNITION PROGRAM NOMINATION APPLICATION

Begun by Former Chair of the Section, Magistrate Diane Kirigin, The Family Law Section’s “MAKING A DIFFERENCE” PUBLIC RECOGNITION COMMITTEE seeks to identify, select and publicly acknowledge the efforts of The Florida Bar, Family Law Section members (including Affiliates) who “make a difference” in the lives of the underserved or disadvantaged in our State. Public perception of marital and family law attorneys/judicial officers and those professionals and paraprofessionals who provide forensic and/or support services to us is at an all-time low. In 2012, then Chair Carin Porras, reaffirmed the Section’s commitment to recognize the work of its members, something current chair, Laura Davis-Smith, continues. It is the two-prong goal of the Committee to educate the public at large about those Section Members who “make a difference” by providing outstanding pro bono services or by engaging in other types of outstanding volunteer community activities/pursuits that improve the lives of Florida’s children and families; and to encourage other Section members to undertake new or continuing pro bono/volunteer services/activities.

Once again, beginning in October and running through the following May, the Committee will select the Section “Member” and “Affiliate Member” of the month. Those selected will be honored in feature articles in FAMSEG, accompanied by press releases, and will receive recognition plaques memorializing their service/activities. These selected nominees will be finalists in what will culminate in the designation of one of the honorees from each category as the Section “Member” and “Affiliate Member” of the Year, to be honored at the Section’s Annual Luncheon in June.
