

Become a Soul Detective

Mission Statement

Soul Detective protocols are therapeutic tools for therapists and energy healers to help clients heal the origins or “invisible roots” of their complex emotional wounds and to get free from energetic invasion. Through connecting to the True Self and one’s own inner guidance, these tools empower a client to recover one’s autonomy, fulfill the soul’s mission in life and to joyfully express one’s gifts and talents to help bring personal and planetary peace and harmony.

Why work with past lives?

Sometimes the root cause of an emotional problem or a relationship difficulty lies in unresolved trauma from a past life. Quantum Physics has made us aware that sequential ordering of time is an illusion, and all time is really now – so a person’s past lives are all really happening simultaneously. Healing an issue from a past life frees the client to move forward in this life, unencumbered by the chains of that problem.

This workshop teaches a Soul Detective protocol developed by Dr. Stone to clear past life trauma using muscle testing to access information and tools from Energy Psychology to rapidly clear the trauma, retrieving the lost soul energy.

Level One Benefits

- Learning an easy way to assess and correct imbalances in the energy field so both practitioner and client are centered and balanced before starting any treatment intervention
- Learning how to access the information stored in the subconscious mind using muscle testing
- Finding out who is on your spiritual guidance team, including angels, spirit guides, and helping animal spirits, and how to call in this spiritual support
- Using the step-by-step Soul Detective Protocol integrating techniques from Energy Psychology with regression therapy to find and heal past life trauma

Barbara Stone, PhD Author and Instructor

Barbara Stone is a Professor at Energy Medicine University, a spiritual coach and mentor, international speaker, and the developer of Soul Detective protocols to help energy therapists resolve the spiritual aspects of emotional problems. She teaches Soul Detective workshops, which include a teacher training program for this work. Also, a gardener and grandmother, she holds a doctorate in clinical psychology from Pacifica Graduate Institute and is Licensed as an Independent Social Worker in the state of Ohio. # Testimonials

"This course was outside of my perceived sphere of understanding. However, it all made such sense it felt like home, as if these lessons are part of our physical and spiritual DNA."

~ Jeremy Culver

"I am so grateful for the knowledge gained in this training. It is such a joy to witness the healing it brings. I have also recognized a deepening of my own self-knowledge and increased awareness of my guides. It seems the more I do for others, the deeper I go as well." ~ Deb Roberts

"Thanks so much—I haven't felt so at peace in years." ~ Lois M.

Soul Detective protocols for healing past life trauma and helping earthbound spirits heal and cross into the Light are covered in Dr. Stone's book Invisible Roots:

How Healing Past Life Trauma Can Liberate Your Present. Also available in the Kindle Version.
