ALEX RAYMOND An Artistic Journey Adventure Intrigue & Romance

Almost Gone! Highest Recommendation. By Ron Goulart. All new! The long-awaited definitive art monograph covering Raymond's complete artistic output with an authoritative text by noted comics historian Ron Goulart! Alex Raymond was one of the most influential comic strip artists ever, creating action-packed art for Secret Agent X-9, the spectacular imagery for Flash Gordon, and nuanced, brilliantly realistic work for the film-noiresque Rip Kirby. HIERONYMUS BOSCH The Complete Works

Oversized 1f0x13, 300 pages. By Stefan Fischer. In the midst of the Late Gothic and Early Renaissance, Netherlandish painter Hieronymus Bosch (c. 1450-1516) was more than an anomaly. His works are populated with grotesque scenes of fantastical creatures succumbing to all manner of human desire, fantasy, and angst. He was first to take figural and scenic representations known as drolleries, which use the monstrous and the grotesque to illustrate sin and evil, and to transfer them from the marginalia of illuminated manuscripts into large-format panel paintings. Taschen, 2016.

MANDRAKE THE MAGICIAN SUNDAYS Volume 1 1935 -1937

The Hidden Kingdom of Murderers Highly Recommended. By Lee Falk and Phil Davis. This unusual strip was the first to feature a magician. Unlike other adventurers, Mandrake used his illusionist skills and his head, rather than his fists. Artist Phil Davis's work is as good as Alex Raymond's from the same period, exhibiting a fine-line brush and beautiful girls as good as the master. I'm very excited to finally have this long-overdue collection of a superior, oft-neglected classic. Titan, 2016.

And with brilliant, bright, wonderful reproduction!! After a try-out as part of the Silly Symphonies series, Donald was given his own Sunday comics page in late 1939 and it became an instant hit. This premiere volume includes more than three full years of rare Sundays. IDW, 2016.

Look for the star symbol. These are items that are deeply discounted from the original publisher's price. Most of these items have been closed out by the publisher and we have limited copies. Buy now before they're gone!

News & Notes: Our cover feature, Alex Raymond, nearly didn't make it into the catalog. We were told it was going to be oversold and we had just once chance to order it. Then it sold so quickly from our email and newsletter listing, we thought we'd run out. But I really wanted to feature it on our cover, so we ran it by the publisher and he let us have enough additional copies to get us through. I really like this piece, Raymond's wonderful movie poster art for the 1935 Captain Blood with Erroll Flynn and Olivia DeHavilland! There is also a special Alex Raymond's section on page 24.

We also have a Wonder Woman section on page 21, and new titles and statues throughout the catalog. With her explosive appearance in Superman v. Batman and her upcoming solo movie, I think she's due for a jump in popularity—just like Doctor Strange is experiencing in anticipation of HIS film this November. We've always had a soft spot for the steadfast Amazon.

I really, really like the new Mandrake the Magician Sundays 1935-37, on this page. You can read my full review on our website. Another favorite is the thick, epic western Bouncer by Jodorowsky and Boucq—page 15. At 416 pages, it's essentially several complete graphic novels in one package—it's dense and beautifully written and drawn. Boucq's artwork reminds me of Moeibus' Blueberry.

Sanctum has wrapped up the Doc Savage pulp reprints with #87, but we're being treated to entirely new Doc novels by the excellent Will Murray. See page 8 for The Jade Ogre, and see our website for several more new novels--including The Sinister Shadow, the cool cross-over. They're very good, and each comes in a softcover as well as a Deluxe Signed Hardcover with special added features. Sanctum is now doing the rare Black Bat pulp series, on page 8.

We have enough Closeouts to include them in this catalog--pages 4, 30. Our Spring Sale email newsletter just went out on May 27th. You can see it on my website blog, or look there under each major category for ALL sale-priced Closeouts.

LYND WARD Six Novels in Woodcuts

Back in stock. Two Volumes in Slipcase. Highly Recommended. From the eve of the Great Depression to the start of World War II, Lynd Ward (1905-1985) observed the troubled American scene through the double lens of a politically committed storyteller and a visionary graphic artist. His medium--the wordless "novel in woodcuts"--was his alone, and he quickly brought it from bold iconographic infancy to subtle and still unrivalled mastery. Library of America, 2010.

SUPERMAN THE GOLDEN AGE Volume 1

Our Highest Recommendation. By Jerry Siegel. Art by Joe Shuster. Faster than a speeding bullet, Superman burst onto the comic book scene in 1938, just as America was on the terrifying precipice of a world war. In a desperate time, legendary creators Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster brought to life the world's first modern superhero. The Man of Steel emerged as a champion of the oppressed, taking down any enemy with his super-strength and speed, both foreign and near to home. In his distinctive royal blue, red and yellow costume, complete with cape, the stalwart Kryptonian emanated strength and fearlessness. He swiftly became a symbol of hope for a downtrodden America. NEW WEBSITE FAQs

SEARCH

Q. I tried searching for Wei Ho and got no results.

A. Our quick search will not look for words under four characters to prevent the return of hundreds or even thousands of items. Use the advance search (use the Byline for Web for Wei Ho).

Q. I did a search and got hundreds of items. How do I narrow it down?

A. We have a very robust ADVANCED SEARCH. You can find that link in our footer on every web page under Quicklinks. We will have a tab for the advanced search in our main menu soon.

Here you can search by almost any parameter: publisher, title, credits, date, description etc. The general search does NOT search the item description—this brings up too many non-relevant hits. But you can search these using ADVANCED SEARCH to see more hits.

Q. When I do a search or when I land on a category page, how does the Sort work?

A. If you use SORT (the little box that comes up after a search), and change it to LOWEST PRICE or NEWEST, that parameter will REMAIN that way for your next search.

So you last used the LOWEST PRICE sort, for example. Then you search for "Alex Raymond" and all kinds of strange things appear first. You need to change the SORT option to RELEVANCE. You can also hit the up and down arrow right next to that box, to change MOST relevant to LEAST relevant. This arrow makes sense on Price (lowest/highest) or Newest/Oldest, but not so much on Relevance!!

JUST ARRIVED & COMING

Q. You used to have a Just Arrived section and a Coming section. Where are they now?

A. We've made them a more reasonable size by putting a NEW ARRIVALS and COMING section under each of the main categories which appear at the top of the home page. For example, click on ART & ILLUSTRATION and NEW ARRIVALS is the first option you see, COMING SOON is the second.

You can sign up for our email newsletter here for a first look at NEW and COMING items, and any specials. You can find the subscription box in the footer on every page.

CLOSEOUTS AND SALE ITEMS

Q. How do I find your sale items?

A. We have a CLOSEOUTS section under each main category. These are at least 30% off, but more often 50-60% off and sometimes more. We will not be ordering these items again. We also have items at reduced cost throughout our website since we discount as many new items as possible. Special Clearance Sales, 3 or 4 times each year, will be posted on the home page. You can also subscribe to our email newsletter here to receive sales announcements first hand.

On all items, LOW STOCK tells you we have 4 copies or less on hand. On normal items, we'll have more copies coming in, but on CLOSEOUTS or ALMOST GONE items, this is it, that's all we have left.

ITEM DESCRIPTIONS AND DETAILS

Q. I've clicked on an item but I see only a brief description and nothing about page counts, size, or the item code. Where can I find more information?

A. You need to scroll down to see the entire description under the DESCRIPTION tab. At the top of the description box you will see tabs. The next tab to the right is the ADDITIONAL INFORMATION tab. Click on this to get the item code, size, page count, date published, publisher, etc. There's also a box for reviews, which is where my personal, additional reviews are posted, which I do once I've had a chance to read an item and I want to say more about it. Or your own review if you'd like to contribute, or those of others.

ACCOUNTS

Q. Why won't my old password work on my web account?

A. When we moved accounts, we eliminated all the old passwords for security reasons—and to eliminate duplicate accounts. You can reset to your old password if you wish but we recommend using characters that include upper and lower case, numbers, and characters like # ! @ etc. The longer the password, the more secure it is. We suggest creating a phrase you will remember (Liv4Ever:]).

Q. I requested a new password but got no email.

A. If you didn't receive an email (and it's not in your spam box) you don't have an account with our new website. If your account has not been active in the last couple years, or you had multiple accounts under the same email, you may need to open a new account.

HOT, WET & WILD DVDs

The Films of Carter Stevens Volume 4, 1980s. In the early 80s there was the beginning of a sea-change for the adult movie business. The invention of the low cost video recorder, the single tube industrial camera, and the introduction of the home video recorder/player changed the way people watched porn--namely, in the privacy of their own bedrooms. This technical shift also allowed producers to make films at a cost so low that they were willing to take far more creative chances. As a result, Carter Stevens set off to produce a surreal porno film filled with strange characters, situations and plots while still keeping the hard core sex that was the bread and butter of the market. That film was Hot, Wet and Wild, which was quickly followed by Hot, Wet and Wilder. After Hours, 2014. Adult Material.
