Katie Trippi

Preferred Outcomes:

Engage Echo Alums in a meaningful and impactful way at Camp
Provide personal and professional development opportunity to the alum.
Provide personal and professional development opportunity to our seasonal staff
Provide a unique learning opportunity for campers to engage with alums.
Provide a unique learning opportunity for seasonal staff members to engage them with alums.

Program Description:

Camp Echo Alumni Director will create an application and selection process for anyone at least 21 years of age interested in spending a week at Camp Echo during the summer to share their talent and expertise with the Camp Echo community. Applicants will be expected to detail their plan for sharing/teaching/leading their activity with campers and or staff in writing as part of the application process.

Examples of possible Expert in Residence offerings could include:

Offering a 5 day special campativity for campers
Offering classes/lectures/presentations for staff during their time off
Working on a project to benefit camp

On Camp housing and meals for the Expert in residence will be included. No other compensation is included. Cost of materials may be covered, at the discretion of the Camp Echo Executive Director. At this time we are not able to accommodate additional family members or pets during the Expert in Residence period.

Experts in Residence will undergo a criminal background check and complete our volunteer packet of paperwork.

Applications for the Expert in Residence Program are due to Katie Trippi by June 1, 2016.
