

MAYOR'S OFFICE
FOR IMMIGRANT ADVANCEMENT

Martin J. Walsh, Mayor of Boston
Alejandra St. Guillén, Director

Dear friends:

As you know, we have been engaged in a re-branding process over the past few months. The first phase was completed with the release of our new name and visual identity, as well as the launch of our Immigrant Information Corners. The City of Boston is currently undergoing an overhaul of the City's website. Once our new site is up and running, we will be able to post events, job descriptions, links, etc directly on our website. Until then, we will be converting to our former method of sending newsletters, with all the information listed in the body of the email and flyers attached. As always, feel free to send us any information you would like to be included in the weekly newsletter.

Reminder - June is Immigrant Heritage Month! Stay tuned for information on all the events happening throughout the month, including the event we are hosting at City Hall on June 8 (info below).

Thank you!

The National Academy of Sciences, National Academy of Engineering, and National Academy of Medicine

In celebration of Immigrant Heritage Month, you are invited to a Briefing:
The Integration of Immigrants into American Society

Wednesday, June 8, 2016
11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Room 801
Boston City Hall
1 City Hall Square | Boston, MA
RSVP here: <https://goo.gl/3pDnj4>

The Integration of Immigrants into American Society, a report by the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, examines how immigrants are integrating into U.S. society and finds that the newest waves of immigrants are assimilating into American society across a broad range of measures.

The Academies, in conjunction with the Mayor's Office for Immigrant Advancement and Project Citizenship, invite you to join a discussion on the report. Members of the report committee, a panel of experts from top research institutions, will discuss comprehensive data from the report on the integration of immigrants in a multitude of areas including education, employment and earnings, occupations, poverty, residential integration, language, health, crime, and family patterns.

You can access more information and download the report at:
www.nationalacademies.org/ImmigrantIntegration.

Speakers:

Mary Waters, Professor of Sociology, Harvard University
David Takeuchi, Professor and Associate Dean of Research, Boston College
School of Social Work

RSVP here: <https://goo.gl/3pDnj4>

Refreshments will be served.

For more information,
please contact Julie Schuck at JSchuck@nas.edu.

This event is free and open to the public.

The National Academy of Sciences, National Academy of Engineering, and National Academy of Medicine work together as the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine to provide independent, objective analysis and advice to the nation and conduct other activities to solve complex problems and inform public policy decisions. The Academies also encourage education and research, recognize outstanding contributions to knowledge, and increase public understanding in matters of science, engineering, and medicine.

Deputy Director for Housing Stability

The City of Boston is seeking a talented and dedicated leader to launch our new Office of Housing Stability. As Boston grows, one of Mayor Walsh's top priorities is to ensure that we grow equitably and with housing options for people of all incomes and backgrounds. The Deputy Director for Housing Stability will lead the City's efforts to assist individuals in rental housing crisis and advance policies to prevent evictions and displacements of long term tenants. This challenging role is an opportunity to truly make a difference in our City and shape the future of Boston.
