

Help Promote EAs to the World at Super Bowl 2016

A golden opportunity!

Super Bowl 2016 will take place on February 7, 2016 at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara. It's called the "Golden Super Bowl" because it will be held in the Golden State of California, in the home stadium of the San Francisco 49ers, a team named after the miners of the California Gold Rush, and because it's the 50th anniversary of the Super Bowl, traditionally the "golden anniversary." CBS will also live-stream the game for free in the United States. This is a golden opportunity to promote Enrolled Agents to the world!

CSEA plans to have both aerial and bus Enrolled Agent advertising campaigns, and will utilize its Major Media Marketing Fund (3M Fund) to help defray expenses. CSEA was founded on the idea that a group of Enrolled Agents can accomplish more together than each could accomplish alone. You can help by making a contribution to the 3M Fund to support this advertising campaign.

What does the CSEA 3M Fund do?

The 3M Fund (Major Media Marketing Fund) is utilized to support a public information and awareness campaign using major media that will heighten the awareness of the EA designation and Members of CSEA among the general public.

How can you help?

Make a contribution to the 3M Fund today at www.csea.org under "Advocacy / Make a Contribution" or fill out the contribution form below and return it to the CSEA office.
