

Fishing! On an ordinary day several fisherman had an extraordinary encounter. What looked like a lousy night of fishing turned into an abundant catch. Simon and his friends would never be the same. Jesus asked them to drop everything to follow Him. He promised they would do more than catch fish. This summer we are going to explore Luke 5: 1-11, the moment where Jesus calls his first disciples. We will discover our ordinary places and think about what happens when Jesus meets us in the middle of our ordinary, everyday life. Middle School youth will be challenged to think about what they need to leave behind to follow Jesus and what it means to be a disciple of Christ. Jesus promises us a life of “catching people.” What does this mean exactly??

So put up your “GONE FISHIN” sign and join us this summer as we explore together this great fishy tale.

Conference is June 16-19. If you want to go, print and complete the following form. Put it in the envelope on Lori Pistor’s door marked MASSANETTA SPRINGS along with a check made out to Cary Presbyterian for $380. AND, we need it in a hurry in order to guarantee our spot.
