CASF Safety Breakfast Forum - Motion is Money

Change the Way You Work & SAVE MONEY

Remaining competitive with a maturing workforce requires contractors to carefully assess their injury cost, productivity, and efficiencies. Learn how contractors can integrate lean production concepts to improve the human interface with tools, materials, and equipment and to enhance worker efficiency, improve productivity, and reduce risk factors. See examples of how this Motion is Money process has been integrated into daily operations with great success in reducing the most common and costly injuries, while enhancing productivity, competitiveness and profitability.

Who should attend? Owners, Management, Safety Directors, Human Resources, Project Managers, Supervisors, Everyone!
