

PUBLIC WORKS ALWAYS THERE

NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK
MAY 9 – 13, 2016

In partnership with Agoura High School, The City of Agoura Hills Public Works Department is proud to present a week-long series of guest speakers focusing on the Civil Engineering career field! Each day will feature a presentation from professionals with different backgrounds in Civil Engineering

SEE REVERSE SIDE!

CITY OF

AGOURA HILLS

PUBLIC WORKS ALWAYS THERE

PRESENTATIONS WILL BE HELD IN ROOM A-1 DURING LUNCH PERIOD!

MONDAY, MAY 9 - PUBLIC WORKS PROJECT MANAGER

Kelly Fisher

City of Agoura Hills

- Kelly has been with the City of Agoura Hills for almost 14 years with experience in residential & commercial land development, capital improvement projects, and water quality.

TUESDAY, MAY 10 - TRAFFIC ENGINEERING

Sri Chakravarthy, P.E., T.E. & Carlie Campuzano, P.E., M.S.

Kimley-Horn & Associates

- Sri and Carlie are experienced in traffic design, planning, and street, and highway operations. Sri and Carlie are also the City's Traffic Engineers.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11 – ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

Lacrissa Cook Davis, MESM

Rincon Consultants

- Lacrissa is a leader in Biological Resources and a principal in Rincon. She manages technical studies, environmental documentation, and permitting for highly controversial and contentious projects.

THURSDAY, MAY 12 – PUBLIC WORKS ENGINEER

Charmaine Yambao, P.E.

City of Agoura Hills

- Charmaine has over 15 years of experience in the public sector for various municipalities and water/wastewater districts. She is the project manager for the Agoura Road Widening project.

FRIDAY, MAY 13 - GEOTECHNICAL/SOILS ENGINEERING

Lauren Doyel, P.E., G.E.

Leighton Consulting

- Lauren has 30 years of work experience in the industry performing underground investigations, dam, road, structure constructions, and multiple developments.