The Reformed Church of Bronxville is proud to present an afternoon of delightful chamber music on Sunday, February 14th at 3:00 pm. The concert will include the beloved D Minor Piano Trio by Mendelssohn, one of his most popular works, and Schumann's exuberant Piano Quintet, a work that revolutionized the instrumentation and character of this form. These compositions represent both composers' finest writing and are major works of nineteenth-century chamber music.

Featuring internationally acclaimed musicians Susan Heerema, violin, Adda Kridler, violin, Daniel Panner, viola, Andrew Kim, cello, and Sandor Szabo, piano. Come celebrate Valentine's Day in a beautiful setting infused with passionate and romantic music!
