

Jennifer Bywaters is a Grade 11 student at Monseigneur-Bruyère secondary school in London, Ontario. She is a member of the London Youth Symphony and the Western University Symphony Orchestra.

She studies with Kate Stone, and receives natural horn instruction from Ron George. Jennifer was a finalist in the 2016 Rose Bowl competition for the Kiwanis Festival of London, and will compete at the provincial level this June. This summer she will attend the Domaine Forget academy in Québec.

This coming year, she will play in the orchestra for the Grand Theatre's high school project production of Les Misérables and is excited to be making her solo début with the Stratford Symphony Orchestra. In her spare time, Jennifer enjoys early music, French literature and studying the Polish language.
