

Easy Freezy Fun Pops

15 chocolate sandwich cookies, crushed

3 Tablespoons melted butter, cooled

One half of a 1.75 qt. carton of chocolate ice cream, softened

One half of a 1.75 qt. carton of vanilla ice cream, softened

One half of a 1.75 qt. carton of strawberry ice cream, softened

½ cup chopped fresh strawberries

Line a square baking pan (8 x 8 or 9 x 9) with waxed paper, leaving edges extended over pan. Stir together cookies and butter; press mixture in to pan. Freeze for 10 minutes.

Spread an even layer of chocolate ice cream over cookie layer; freeze for 15 minutes. Repeat with vanilla ice cream.

Stir chopped strawberries into strawberry ice cream. Spread in an even layer over vanilla layer; freeze for 15 minutes. Insert 16 craft sticks, evenly spaced. Loosely cover. Freeze for 2 hours or until firm. (I would suggest more than 2 hours. They were a still a bit soft.)

Using edges of waxed paper, lift dessert from pan. Cut between sticks into 16 bars.
