Woodrow Wilson Senior High School
9th Grade English Summer 2015 Reading Assignment

Read the novel Enrique's Journey by Sonia Nazario. Choose one of the four projects below. Have the completed project ready to turn in to your English II teacher on the first day of school.

1. Create a piece of artwork (painting, sculpture, or other medium) that represents your understanding of the major themes, ideas, or messages in the novel. Include a typed, one page, 12pt font, double spaced reflection that shows your thorough understanding of the entire novel and makes a clear connection between your artwork and the novel.
2. Create a queue of ten (10) NetFlix movies for the protagonist. Explain why the character wants to view each. How are the character's thoughts, struggles and triumphs mirrored in the movie choices? Include a typed, one paragraph, 12pt font, double spaced analysis per movie.
3. Write a narrative describing a "block party" in which the characters from the novel are in attendance. Using inferences and implications developed from the text, to create the setting, the itinerary, the menu, the appearance and demeanor of the characters, etc. Provide textual evidence to support the choices that you have made for your "block party". Your narrative should be typed, one page, 12pt font, and double spaced.
4. Pretend you're Enrique and reflect on your journey throughout the course of the text. You will write (6) journal entries to chronicle your travel from El Salvador to America. Three entries will reflect on your experience journeying to America. The other (3) entries will reflect on your experience in America. Consider pictures and clippings to capture your observations. Each journal entry will be typed, ½ page, 12pt font, and double spaced.
