The Invitational is an annual event for youth basketball players throughout the DC, MD, and VA area. Each participant is required to pay a registration fee of $60.00 in order to participate in the Invitational and complete registration forms due by Friday, March 18, 2016. The event is closed to the public for the first half of the event in which youth will participate in many development drills including ball handling, shooting, defensive, conditioning, strengthening, and etc. The second half of the event will be a showcase of the youth playing games as the doors open for the public at noon and the games start at 1pm. The parents of each paying participant will not have to pay for admission for the games. All others are required to pay admission for the games $5.00 (13 & older), $1.00 (Children ages 5-12), and children 5 & under are for free. The event gives a lot of the youth exposure for local high school coaches, family members, and friends to enjoy the youth having fun playing basketball and also to receive notice from schools to attend in the future.
