

Save the Date!

SNAPSHOTS FROM THE PAST

A living history production celebrating the 125 years of the Nineteenth Century Club in Oak Park. See the famous and often infamous characters that share a connection with the history of the organization.

Drama, humor, and history performed by local actors from the Free Readers, Open Door Repertory, and Oak Park Festival Theater, and others will delight audiences.
A Parchem/Pingle Production.

SUNDAY, MAY 1 • 1:30 & 4PM

Tickets $20 each

Purchase tickets online at www.nineteenthcentury.org or at the Club at 178 Forest Ave., Oak Park.
For more information, call 708-386-2729 or contact info@nineteenthcentury.org.

All proceeds benefit the Nineteenth Century Charitable Association's Capital Campaign to restore the Ballroom.

