Suzanne Bahr is promoted to Senior Project Manager with Culinary Advisors.

Washington, DC February 10, 2016

Culinary Advisors is pleased to announce the promotion of Suzanne Bahr to Senior Project Manager. Suzanne entered the foodservice design consulting field in 1988, combining her degree in Architecture from the University of Virginia with six years' experience selling foodservice equipment. Suzanne spent five years as a design consultant and project manager for a large foodservice consulting and design firm which led to her present position with Culinary Advisors. Since joining Culinary Advisors in 1995, Suzanne has worked on a wide range of foodservice design projects, in many different capacities, drawing on her unique design and sales background.

Suzanne is a professional member of Foodservice Consultant Society International (FCSI).

Culinary Advisors is a woman owned company founded in 1993 specializing in foodservice facility design. We have offices in Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and Texas.
