Who:

For over three decades, the Jeanne Geiger Crisis Center has responded to the needs of families in crisis due to domestic violence. The mission of the Jeanne Geiger Crisis Center is to empower individuals and engage communities to end domestic violence. Using evidence-based best practices and innovative approaches, the Center mitigates the effects of trauma, prevents domestic violence homicides, and engages communities in promoting long term social change.

What:

4th Annual White Ribbon Breakfast—
Where men and boys join us in the effort to end violence against women and girls, promote gender equity, healthy relationships, and a new vision of masculinity.

Why:

To break the cycle of violence before it affects the next generation, we offer innovative and evidence-based education initiatives that provide boys and girls in our community with options for a better life. The Youth Empowerment Services (YES) Program includes three linked initiatives that are implemented in collaboration with local government, schools and other community partners:

*Empowering Girls through Girls Inc. of the Seacoast (GISA),
*Promoting Healthy Relationships through Teen Dating Violence Prevention, and *Engaging boys & girls through Bystander Education (MVP). All of these initiatives are based on the powerful concept of youth as community assets in preventing all forms of violence. With patterns of abuse starting in elementary and middle school, growing these initiatives is critical to our mission.
