WE CAN LEARN

CONFERENCE

Sean Smith
TECH Tools & Strategies

This workshop will focus on technology-based solutions (low, mid, and high tech) as well as ways family members can further enhance their involvement in the identification, implementation, and evaluation of technology tools to assist their son or daughter with a disability. Discover how technology can reduce a student's reliance on parents, siblings, friends and teachers, helping foster not only access to the general education curriculum but also improving self-esteem.
