Emmaus United Church of Christ invites you to a free screening of this powerful film on the need for sensible measures to prevent gun violence.

Living for 32 is the inspirational story of Colin Goddard, a survivor of the tragic Virginia Tech massacre that took place in 2007 leaving 32 dead and 17 injured. Goddard was shot four times but managed to call the police with the help of a classmate, Emily Haas. Told he might not walk again, he fought his way through arduous physical therapy and he grew a fire in his heart to do something to keep dangerous people from having easy access to deadly weapons.

After recovering and finishing his degree, Goddard volunteered for the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence, going undercover with a hidden camera into gun shows to prove how easy it is to buy a gun, with no identification, no background check, and just a wad of cash.
