

“Learning Journals in the Montessori Elementary Classroom”

FREE Webinar: Wednesday, August 26th, 2015 5:00-6:30 p.m.

Greg MacDonald, Director of Elementary Training

Agenda

- Welcome & Introduction
- Why use Learning Journals?
  - Learning Journals support the self construction of children and they are also a powerful tool for the Montessori elementary Guide. How and why is this, and where do child, Guide and Learning Journal meet?
- Types of Learning Journals
  - Think that Learning Journals are just a timed record of a child's day? Think again. Learning Journals can take many forms.
- Introducing Learning Journals to children
  - Once you've decided that Learning Journals will have a place in your Montessori elementary class, the question becomes: "How do I introduce them to the children?" Here are some ideas...
- Learning Journals in the elementary classroom
  - On a day by day basis, how might Learning Journals be used by Montessori elementary children? Do older children use Learning Journals differently to younger children?
- Q & A with Greg MacDonald