

Answer- c. 14,928

We know that the Georgia Department of Agriculture inspects grocery and convenience stores, but did you know that they are also responsible for inspecting drug stores, food banks, health food stores, food processors, mobile vehicle sales and sushi franchises? With over 7,000 convenience stores alone, these are some busy folks!