

Are you concerned how the new wage and hour regulations will hurt your profitability?

Would you like to benchmark your operation with other GA independents?

Have problems with the GA WIC program?

The Georgia Food Industry Association is pleased to bring you information important to the success of your business. Don't miss labor attorney Carla Gunnin from the law firm of Jackson Lewis, who will discuss how the proposals will affect our grocers. FMS will be providing financial information and benchmarks for the independent grocer. Also, bring your WIC concerns to the meeting in preparation for our legislative agenda!
