

WV PW 2014 SPRING GATHERING- APRIL 12, 2014

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, MORGANTOWN, WV

Forty-seven PW representing eight churches gathered on a warm “spring” day at the First Presbyterian Church in Morgantown for the Annual Spring Gathering of the WV Presbyterian Women.

Highlights of the morning included:

An overview of our Horizon’s Bible Study by Dana Marzolf, Spiritual Enrichment Leader led us Across the Red Sea with a “guided meditation.”

Karen Robinson was presented with a gift by Moderator, Joanne Yingling, from the WV PW in recognition of her retirement as Resource Director of our Presbytery.

Mertie Woolcock, V.M of the Synod, encouraged all to attend the Synod Gathering “Hope in Bloom” at Waynesburg University on June 19-21.

Karen Robinson, “who’s never without a book” gave us ideas for good reading this summer.

Rev. Joanne Glaser, our Keynote Speaker, shared with the group the history of the Presbyterian Women. She emphasized that PW, through the years, have always been passionate about mission, especially “hands-on” mission work.

Rev. Dr. Shelly Barrick-Parsons invited all to the table to receive communion during our worship.

Danna Davis, our Mission Leader for WV PW touched our hearts with a solo, “Holy City.”

The offering for the day supported The Child Development Center of the Morgantown Church.
