

Faith and Social Responsibility Webinar Announced

May 10, 2016 from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. EDT

Faith and Social Responsibility: The PC (USA) at work in Human Rights and Environmental Issues - Much of the work of the Presbyterian Hunger Program focuses on our responsibility as people faith to respond to environmental and human rights injustices. Without question the stewardship of God's resources is entrusted to the church. In recognition of the church's unique opportunity to advance its mission faithfully and creatively through the financial resources entrusted it, Mission Responsibility Through Investment (MRTI) implements the General Assembly's policies on socially responsible investing by engaging corporations in which the church owns stock. Join the Presbyterian Hunger Program as we explore the work of MRTI and the Presbyterian history of engaging Corporate Social Responsibility.

Moderator: Jessica Maudlin, Associate for Enough for Everyone

Panelists: Rob Fohr, Associate for Mission Responsibility Through Investing (MRTI)

Register Here: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/2692265643601272833>