

SIGN UP: Small Church Conference Choir For April 30, 2016

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord!

Come join the Small Church Choir for worship at the Small Church Conference, Fayetteville Presbyterian Church, April 30, 2016. The only requirement is that you can make a joyful noise!

Nancy Villain, Music Director at Elk Hills Presbyterian Church, will direct the choir that will be made up of church members from all over West Virginia joining their voices in praise to God.

How can this be? Just sign up and you will receive the music for hymns and anthems that will be part of the service. You can practice on your own.

When we will practice together? Although details will be determined, it will most likely happen the morning of the conference. Be there early!

What do we wear? Please bring a choir robe from your church if you have one. If not, let us know and we can provide one from another church. The varied colors will remind us of the varied churches and voices that sing as one!

When will we receive the music? Worship will be outlined and the hymn numbers or music sent to you by mid-February, giving you plenty of time to practice.

How do we sign up? Please send an email to nvillain@aol.com and let her know you are interested.

Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp!

Praise him with clanging cymbals...

Calling all instruments: Anyone who is interested in sharing their gifts in playing other instruments, please respond as well!
