

THE PEARL S. BUCK LIVING GATEWAY CONFERENCE

September 11-13, 2016
The Erickson Alumni Center
Morgantown, West Virginia

Join in celebrating the life, legacy and enduring impact of Pearl S. Buck, winner of a 1932 Pulitzer Prize for her novel, "The Good Earth."

Keynote Speaker

Peter Conn

Executive Director of
The Athenaeum of Philadelphia

The conference is the result of a partnership among the West Virginia Humanities Council, West Virginia University, West Virginia Wesleyan College and the Pearl S. Buck Birthplace Foundation.

To register for the conference go to:

pearlsbuckconference.wvu.edu